

Office of Superintendent of Schools
Board Meeting of August 25, 1999

August 16, 1999

Office of School Board Attorney
Johnny Brown, Board Attorney

SUBJECT: SCHOOL BOARD OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA v. D.A., DOAH CASE NO. 99-1002

On November 13, 1998, the School Board expelled the Respondent, student D.A., from the regular and adult programs of the Miami-Dade County Public Schools and administratively assigned him to an alternative education program. On February 1, 1999, the student was reassigned and administratively allowed to return to Palmetto Senior High School, the student's original school.

By Recommended Order of Dismissal entered June 29, 1999, Administrative Law Judge, Joyous Parrish recommended that The School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida, enter a final order dismissing the student's request for a hearing on his alternative placement, as moot, since the student has been returned to his original school.

RECOMMENDED: That The School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida, enter its final order in the case of The School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida v. D.A., Case No. 99-1002, adopting the recommendations of the Administrative Law Judge as its Final Order and dismissing Respondent's request for a hearing as moot.
