Dr. Robert B. Ingram, Member

SUBJECT: REQUEST FOR APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION NO. 02-04 OF THE SCHOOL BOARD OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, COMMENDING MR. WILLIAM B. BERGER, CHIEF OF POLICE, CITY OF NORTH MIAMI BEACH, FOR BEING ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE AND FOR HIS MANY CONTRIBUTIONS TO KEEPING THIS SCHOOL DISTRICT'S FACILITIES, STUDENTS AND EMPLOYEES IN NORTH MIAMI BEACH SAFE

Police work requires a very special kind of person, one with strength, courage and conviction as well as one who is dedicated to ensuring the safety of his or her community. City of North Miami Beach Police Chief William B. Berger, is just such a person. It is the aforementioned characteristics and qualities coupled with his proven leadership ability and professionalism that resulted in members of the International Association of Chiefs of Police electing him their organization's president.

Of even greater significance to Miami-Dade County Public Schools is Chief Berger's contributions to ensuring the safety of this school district's facilities, students and employees in the City of North Miami Beach. Therefore, it is fitting that our School Board commend Chief Berger on his most recent honor and present him with a proclamation in recognition of his contributions and achievements.

ACTION PROPOSED BY DR. ROBERT B. INGRAM: That The School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida, approve Resolution No. 02-04 of the School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida, commending City of North Miami Beach Police Chief William B. Berger, for being elected president of the International Association of Chiefs of Police and for his many contributions to keeping this school district's facilities, students and employees in North Miami Beach safe.
