COMMITTEE: LEGISLATIVE RELATIONS, PUBLIC RELATIONS AND PERSONNEL SERVICES

The Kiwanis Club of Little Havana has been a proponent of education for many years and has expressed its support for Miami-Dade County Public Schools' students in a variety of ways, most recently through its annual back-to-school book bag project. Through this year's project, students at Comstock, Riverside, Frances S. Tucker, Eneida M. Hartner and Lenora B. Smith elementary schools were provided with book bags and school supplies at the start of the new school year.

The club members' commitment to our students, as well as their generosity and determination to make going back to school a more pleasant experience for students in all five schools, is clearly deserving of special recognition by our School Board. Therefore, it is appropriate that the Board adopt the proposed resolution recognizing the Kiwanis Club of Little Havana for its dedication, hard work and contributions to hundreds of students.
