COMMITTEE: INSTRUCTIONAL EXCELLENCE AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

LINK TO DISTRICT
STRATEGIC PLAN: GENERAL OPERATIONS

The School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida announced on October 17, 2007, its intention to amend School Board Rule 6Gx13- 5B-1.042, Articulation, at its meeting of November 20, 2007, to comply with changes reflecting the inclusion of transition and orientation information to ensure a comprehensive articulation program.

The document, Articulation Guide, which is incorporated by reference and made part of this rule, is proposed to be repealed to promulgate a new document. The proposed new document, Articulation, Transition and Orientation Guide, includes orientation information, transition programs and an outline of available curricula.

Changes have been made to incorporate current District procedures and enter new language, as appropriate. Highlights of amendments to the Articulation, Transition and Orientation Guide include:

- Updated information regarding timeline of events for the articulation process to facilitate more informed and rigorous educational choices for students;
- Information for students regarding Major Area of Interest as mandated by HB 7087;
- Outline of available curricula for transition programs;
- Inclusion of program information and implementation on ePEP, Florida's online education and career portfolio electronic planning tool; and
- Addition of orientation information to assist students as they transition from grade to grade and elementary to middle and middle to senior.

The Notice of Intended Action was published in the Miami Daily Business Review on October 22, 2007, posted in various places for public information, and mailed to various organizations representing persons affected by the rule and to individuals requesting notification.

The time to request a hearing or protest the adoption of this rule has elapsed.

Copies of the proposed repealed document, Articulation Guide, which is incorporated by reference and is a part of School Board rule 6Gx13- 5B-1.042, and the new document, Articulation, Transition, and Orientation Guide, to be incorporated by reference and made part of the rule, will be forwarded to the School Board Members under separate cover and will be available for inspection by the public in the Office of Board Recording Secretary, Room 924, and the Citizen Information Center, Room 158, 1450 N.E. Second Avenue, Miami, Florida 33132.

In accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, this amended rule is presented to The School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida, for adoption and authorization to file the rule in the official records of The School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida.

Attached are the Notice of Intended Action and the proposed amended rule. Changes from the current rule are indicated by underscoring words to be added and ~~striking through~~ words to be deleted.

RECOMMENDED: That The School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida:

1. adopt amended School Board Rule 6Gx13- 5B-1.042, Articulation;
2. repeal the document, Articulation Guide, which is incorporated by reference and is part of this rule; and
3. promulgate new document, Articulation, Transition and Orientation Guide which will be incorporated by reference and made part of this rule, and authorize the Superintendent to file the rule with The School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida, to be effective November 20, 2007.

NOTICE OF INTENDED ACTION

THE SCHOOL BOARD OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, announced on October 17, 2007, its intention to amend Board Rule 6Gx13- 5B-1.042, Articulation, at its meeting of November 20, 2007.

PURPOSE AND EFFECT: The recommended amendment to this rule is needed to bring about a more comprehensive articulation process to ensure student success. In addition, the document, Articulation Guide, incorporated by reference and made part of this rule, is proposed to be repealed in order to propose the new document, Articulation, Transition, and Orientation Guide, to be incorporated by reference and made part of this rule. Transition programs, orientation information and an outline of available curricula is contained in this new guide.

SUMMARY: The rule establishes the restructuring of the Articulation Guide to incorporate transition programs and orientation information to the original document.

ProgressARTICULATION

Articulation is the systematic process and procedure, implemented to assure the efficient dissemination of information and materials to students, parents, and receiving schools. This information is related to educational programs and support activities affecting students as they move from grade to grade and school to school. Each school principal has the responsibility for developing an articulation plan, and organizing and implementing sound articulation activities between grade levels and among feeder schools. Principals within each school feeder pattern shall work cooperatively to coordinate articulation efforts.

In order to assist schools in planning and implementing an effective, systematic and comprehensive articulation program, the document, Articulation, Transition and Orientation Guide, 1996 edition, has been developed and is incorporated into by reference and is part of this rule. The guide delineates the responsibility of district, region, and school personnel in the articulation process, and provides supplementary information, authorized procedures, and calendars indicating timelines for specific articulation, transition and orientation activities. ~~Copies of the document shall be available in each school, region office, and the Citizen Information Center.~~
