OUTSTANDING VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

COMMITTEE: INSTRUCTIONAL EXCELLENCE AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

LINK TO DISTRICT
STRATEGIC PLAN: ENGAGE STAKEHOLDERS ON DISTRICT INITIATIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Karen Rivo, president of the Parent Teacher Student Association (PTSA) of Miami Beach Senior High School, was recently named the Outstanding Adult Volunteer winner for Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS). Ms. Rivo was presented the award at the 2007-08 Outstanding School Volunteers and Dade Partners Exemplary Awards luncheon. The event honored community members and organizations that have made extraordinary contributions to the school district and M-DCPS students. The volunteer honorees were selected based on the number of hours of service, years of service and the impact of their contributions.

Since 1995, Ms. Rivo has served as president of the PTSA at North Beach Elementary School, Nautilus Middle School, and Miami Beach Senior High School. In addition to serving on the PTSA, Ms. Rivo sits on two health committees and is chair of M-DCPS' Family and Community Involvement Advisory Committee. Ms. Rivo, a former nurse, believes that her proudest achievement has been increasing the number of health clinics that are in our schools, which has been an ongoing effort for the past few years.

As quoted recently in The Miami Herald, Ms. Rivo says she is humbled to receive the honor but hopes it reminds people that "volunteers have the power to affect change."
