 COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS

COMMITTEE: INSTRUCTIONAL EXCELLENCE AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

LINK TO STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK: SCHOOL/DISTRICT LEADERSHIP

Shannon Melendi was a bright, promising 19-year-old with aspirations to be a lawyer. The Miami Southwest Senior High School graduate was a new student at Emory University in Atlanta when she disappeared in 1994.

Shannon's tragic disappearance has inspired her parents, Yvonne and Luis Melendi, and U.S. Congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen to promote safety awareness through Shannon Melendi Safety Day in Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS). The program visits high schools to promote safety awareness and alert students to the dangers around them. Shannon Melendi Safety Day has been celebrated in four high schools in Miami-Dade and Monroe counties.

A product of M-DCPS and a former educator, Congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen is a strong supporter of education initiatives that enhance the educational experience for students and promotes a safe and healthy learning environment. The Melendi family and Congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen are advocates for initiatives and laws that protect the well-being of children and young adults. M-DCPS commends Yvonne and Luis Melendi and Congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen for their efforts in promoting safety awareness among children and their families.
