

Dr. Wilbert "Tee" Holloway, Board Member

SUBJECT: REQUEST FOR APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION NO. 10-038 OF THE SCHOOL BOARD OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, RECOGNIZING JOELLA C. GOOD ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STUDENTS FOR THEIR OUTSTANDING ACCOMPLISHMENTS AT THE MIAMI-DADE COUNTY FAIR & EXPOSITION, INC.

COMMITTEE: SCHOOL SUPPORT ACCOUNTABILITY

LINK TO STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK: EDUCATION

Every year, the Miami-Dade County Youth Fair & Exposition, Inc. encourages students ages 5-18 to enter into various competitions. The competitions give students an opportunity to demonstrate their skills in wide array of categories including the fine arts, agriculture, sewing and science. Students are challenged to express their aptitude through projects.

This year, Joella C. Good Elementary School students participated in the Miami-Dade County Youth Fair & Exposition, Inc. with outstanding results. The school amassed a remarkable 174 ribbons and awards, which is 13 more than the school won last year. More than 60 of the awards were for first place finishes. The talented students entered several categories of competition such as environmental science and wildlife, minerals and shells, two-dimensional art, three-dimensional art, popsicle design and engineering. In addition, the students were awarded nearly $600 in prize money.

Principal Lizette O'Halloran, coaches Jacqueline Cobb and Stephen Herndon as well as teachers Diane Hector, Ana Junco, Ketsey Correra, Alejandra Velsaquez and Elda Gurrero and the students of Joella C. Good Elementary School are to be commended for their hard work and perseverance.
