Gary Nader fine art has become much more than just a gallery. Situated in the heart of Wynwood, the new and renovated art district of Miami, it presents an extensive number of solo and group exhibitions, publishes catalogues and art books, and provides extensive professional services to assist a private clientele, corporations, and museums with the acquisition or sale of Latin American, Modern and Contemporary art. The gallery also provides certifications and appraisal services as well as art advisory programs and curatorial information including cataloguing and conservation.

At the moment, Gary Nader fine art is the largest and most important fine art gallery in South Florida with 55,000 sq. ft. of exhibition space. The gallery displays a major selection of works by numerous Modern and Contemporary Latin American and European artists including: Guido Albi Marini (Italy), Pablo Atchugarry (Uruguay), Fernando Botero (Colombia), Guillermo Conte (Argentina), Guillermo Muñoz Vera (Chile), Pablo Picasso (Spain), Henry Matisse (France), Wilfredo Lam (Cuba), Martin Kippenberger (German), Yoshitomo Nara (Japan), and Frank Stella (USA).

Miami-Dade public school students have been on field trips to the gallery, and new tours are currently being scheduled so students may experience the works of Picasso, Miro, Dalí and more.

The School Board commends Gary Nader fine art for providing Miami-Dade County students the opportunity to stimulate and develop their imagination and critical-thinking, as well as cognitive and creative skills.
