SUBJECT:                   REQUEST APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION NO. 13-061 OF
THE SCHOOL BOARD OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA,
RECOGNIZING THE MIAMI NORLAND SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL TEAM FOR WINNING THE FHSAA
CLASS 6A STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

COMMITTEE:               SCHOOL SUPPORT ACCOUNTABILITY

LINK TO STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK:               STUDENT, PARENT, AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

The Miami Norland Senior High School Vikings athletics program has solidified its status as a sports powerhouse when its boys' basketball team won the FHSAA Class 6A state championship for the second year in a row.

Miami Norland Senior High School added to what has been an impressive eight-year run for their program by winning their fourth state title during that span. Combined with two state championships each by its Lady Vikings basketball and the football teams, Miami Norland Senior High School has now won eight state titles since 2002.

Sports are pivotal to the physical fitness and health of a child as well as their emotional well being. Sports increase team spirit and mental strength while building the athlete's confidence and improving their decision-making skills.

The Miami Norland Senior High School boys' basketball team is to be commended for demonstrating a commitment to excellence and the ideals of sportsmanship. Their achievement is a testament to their perseverance and hard work.

This item does not appear on the published agenda. There exists good cause to vary from the published agenda in order timely and properly honor the Miami Norland Senior High School basketball team's achievements.
