

Dr. Dorothy Bendross-Mindingall, Board Member

SUBJECT:                   REQUEST FOR APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION NO. 13-119
OF THE SCHOOL BOARD OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY,
FLORIDA, RECOGNIZING STUDENT CHRISTY CHARNEL

COMMITTEE:           INSTRUCTIONAL   EXCELLENCE    AND   COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

LINK TO STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK:           STUDENT, PARENT AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Christy Charnel, a senior at School for Advanced Studies North Campus, has made a commitment to promote non-violence in our community and has shown leadership among her peers regarding domestic violence. She has volunteered hundreds of hours at His House Children's Home for abused children, and also created her own foundation. The Loving Bonds Foundation brings children, of all socioeconomic backgrounds, together to foster healing through exposure to music, counseling, mentorship, and most importantly, love.

Christy has successfully completed the prerequisite course for her medical major and currently shadows doctors and nurses in the emergency room at Jackson North Hospital in her free time.

Christy has served in high school leadership posts such as vice president of Student Government, vice president of Future Business Leaders and President of Bible Club. She also is a member of several clubs including Women of Tomorrow, National Honor Society, and Key Club. Her talents also go beyond academics to the arts and sports, as she plays the piano and organ, and swims and runs track competitively.

Christy Charnel is to be commended for her incredible courage, advocacy and untiring dedication to empower children in our community.
