COMMITTEE:           INSTRUCTIONAL           EXCELLENCE           AND           COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

LINK TO STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK:           EDUCATION

Dr. Susan Trauschke-McEachin has dedicated nearly three decades to serving the students of South Florida and Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS). A believer in the value of an education, Dr. Trauschke-McEachin earned a Bachelor of Science from the University of Florida, a Master of Science from Nova Southeastern University, and a Doctorate in Education from Florida International University. In addition, she participated in the Core Educational Leadership Program at Nova Southeastern University and the Harvard Graduate School of Education Principals' Center Leadership Program. Dr. Trauschke-McEachin is certified in the areas of school principal, educational leadership, elementary education, and gifted endorsement. She also serves as an adjunct professor at St. Thomas University's Institute for Leadership Studies.

Dr. Trauschke-McEachin began her teaching career in 1980 in Lafayette County and later Marion County public schools. In 1984, Dr. Trauschke-McEachin began her tenure at M-DCPS and taught at several schools including Flagami, Sweetwater, and Sabal Palm elementary schools, Highland Oaks Middle, and Sabal Palm Gifted Center. In 1999, she was named assistant principal of Opa-locka Elementary School, later renamed Dr. Robert B. Ingram Elementary School, and served in that capacity for seven years. In 2006, Dr. Trauschke-McEachin was appointed principal of the school, where she remained until she culminated her long career with the school system.

A stalwart community advocate, Dr. Trauschke-McEachin has coordinated several violence prevention events throughout the years. She is a member of the North Dade Rotary Club and the War on Poverty Advisory Council. She has served as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the North Dade Regional Chamber of Commerce for the last 2 ½ years, and as a member of the Board of Directors of the Dr. Robert B. Ingram Foundation since 2009. Miami-Dade County Public Schools commends Dr. Susan Trauschke-McEachin for her commitment, dedication, and exemplary service to the students, parents, and families in our school system and the community. } Added
