STAKEHOLDERS

Mr. Harve A. Mogul assumed the role of President Emeritus in August 2017 following a 27-year career as president and CEO of the United Way of Miami-Dade. As President Emeritus, Mr. Mogul focuses his energies on helping build the United Way Endowment, managing key donor relationships, and providing advice and counsel on other strategic issues. As the community's largest, private funder of health and human services with a mission of "building community by helping people care for one another," United Way brings people and organizations together from across the community to fight for the education, financial stability, and health of every person.

During his years as President and CEO, the United Way of Miami-Dade earned national recognition as one of the leading and most respected United Ways and non-profits in the nation. Total assets grew from $20 million to $100 million and the organization frequently was recognized for excellence in its major gift and fundraising programs, diversity efforts, emergency responsiveness, financial stewardship, and governance and community building initiatives. In January 2007, the United Way of Miami-Dade opened a national best practices teaching and learning center on its campus – the United Way Center for Excellence in Early Education – dedicated to elevating the quality of early childhood education in Miami-Dade and beyond. In 2009, United Way opened the Center for Financial Stability to address economic hardships facing individuals and families.

A passionate fundraiser, Mr. Mogul has raised more than $2 billion for health and human services during his 40-year United Way career. In addition to Miami-Dade County, Mr. Mogul has worked for the United Ways in Baltimore, Maryland; Cleveland, Ohio; Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; and, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

As a campaign director for Ketchum, Inc., Mr. Mogul helped plan the national campaign to raise $100 million for the U.S. Holocaust Memorial and Museum in Washington D.C. Prior to that, Mr. Mogul served in the United States Peace Corps from 1964-66, taught fifth grade in Baltimore, and worked with community planning and advocacy organizations.

During his career, Mr. Mogul has held various leadership positions within the United Way. He was tapped to lead a national United Way system response focused on the long-term rebuilding needs of the individuals and communities following disasters like Hurricane Katrina. In Miami, he serves as a trustee of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Orange Bowl Committee, the Miami-Dade County Public School Superintendent's Business Advisory Council, and Florida International University's Center for Leadership Advisory Council. He is a past board member of the Zoological Society of Florida, the Early Learning Coalition, and the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta's Labor, Education and Health Advisory Council.

Mr. Mogul earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1964 and a Master's degree in Social Work and Community Planning in 1971, both from the University of Maryland. In 2006, he received an honorary doctorate degree from Johnson & Wales in business administration. In 2011, the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce honored Mr. Mogul with its Sand in My Shoes Award. Among his other honors, Mr. Mogul is a recipient of Miami-Dade County Public Schools' Superintendent's Choice Award; the United Teachers of Dade Champions of Public Education; Temple Israel's first Joseph Narot Award for Community Service; MCCJ's Humanitarian Award; Mercy Hospital's Monsignor Bryan O. Walsh Humanitarian Award; South Florida Business Journal's Ultimate CEO award; and the United Home Care's Claude Pepper Lifetime Achievement Award. He also was named Big Brother's Big Sister's Miracle Maker, Family Resource Center's Children's Hero, and American Diabetes Association's Father of the Year.

The School Board of Miami-Dade County honors an outstanding community leader who has dedicated his life to helping people.
