SUBJECT: STUDENT HISTORY BY SUBJECT AREA REPORT

Due to technical difficulties, the Student History by Subject Area reports that have been ordered from the Online Report Request System between December 16, 2002 and April 11, 2003 have erroneously displayed testing information for students that have no test data. The test information for students with scores is correct. Schools that are relying on the test information for scheduling and graduation purposes should request new reports from the Online Report Request System.
