Activities

STAFF DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

The School Board recognizes the need to provide a comprehensive staff development program for the personnel of the Miami-Dade County Public Schools. The Board considers staff development as the educational support service designed to improve and review the competencies of personnel in the school system so that they personnel may demonstrate the knowledge, skills, and attitudes necessary for effective performance of their assigned duties or duties to be assigned.

The Master Plan for Inservice Education is prepared according to state specifications. It is the district plan that provides personnel in this school system with the criteria for planning, implementing and evaluating staff development programs.

- Section I contains state and district requirements.
- Section II contains components leading to certificate renewal.
- Section III contains components not leading to certificate renewal.
- ~~Section IV contains the Professional Orientation Program Plan.~~
- ~~Section V contains the Summer Inservice Institute Plan.~~

~~Sections IV and its addendum of the district's Master Plan for Inservice Education 1994-1999 are incorporated by reference in this Board rule and are a part hereof.~~
