OF THE SCHOOL BOARD OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY,
FLORIDA, RECOGNIZING PAMELA AND FLAVIAN ALIC
FOR THEIR PARENT INVOLVEMENT AND DEDICATION AT NORTH DADE CENTER FOR MODERN LANGUAGES

COMMITTEE:               SCHOOL SUPPORT ACCOUNTABILITY

LINK TO STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK:             STUDENT, PARENT, AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Parents play a pivotal role in their children's education. They are often a child's first and most important teacher. Studies show that parental involvement ensures greater achievement in and out of the classroom. Parental involvement is also critical to the success of any school.

Pamela and Flavian Alic, parents and now proud grandparents of several North Dade Center for Modern Languages students, are a shining example of dedicated parental involvement. Through their hard work and spirit of volunteerism, Mr. and Mrs. Alic have made a remarkable difference in the lives of the school's students and they have become an invaluable part of the North Dade Center for Modern Languages family. Their passion for service and heartfelt commitment to the school has impacted the lives of many of the school's students.

Mr. and Mrs. Alic have demonstrated a steadfast commitment as parents and volunteers at North Dade Center for Modern Languages. Throughout the year, they have participated in many of the school's cultural events and activities including Chinese New Year, Black History Month, Hispanic Heritage Celebration and the school's award-winning chess tournaments. Mr. and Mrs. Alic inspire others with their positive attitude and enthusiasm and their love of the school is evident in all that they do.

Miami-Dade County Public Schools commends Pamela and Flavian Alic for their dedication, spirit, generosity, and humility in serving the school community of North Dade Center for Modern Languages.
