

Dr. Dorothy Bendross-Mindingall, Board Member

SUBJECT: REQUEST FOR APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION NO. 15-053
OF THE SCHOOL BOARD OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY,
FLORIDA, RECOGNIZING SYBRINA FULTON

COMMITTEE: INNOVATION, GOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS, AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

LINK TO STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK: STUDENT, PARENT AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

The untimely death of Sybrina Fulton's son Trayvon Martin at the age of 17 sparked a national debate regarding police reform and social justice. Since his passing, Ms. Fulton has been able to transform this family tragedy into social change. In honor of her son, she has become a national advocate and role model. She advocates for building better, safer communities and ending violence towards children. She encourages families to educate their children about their civil rights. She emphasizes the need for children to feel accepted and a valuable part of their community.

Ms. Fulton has a legacy of community service. She served the families of South Florida for more than two decades while working for the Miami-Dade County Housing Development Agency. She is active in the community as a member of Antioch Baptist Church in Miami Gardens. A strong believer in the importance of education, Ms. Fulton earned a bachelor's degree in English from Florida Memorial University.

Sybrina Fulton's life is an expression of faith, grace and wisdom. Her powerful message of hope and change will enrich the lives of generations to come.
