SUBJECT: REQUEST APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION NO. 15-082 OF THE SCHOOL BOARD OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, RECOGNIZING PALMETTO ELEMENTARY SCHOOL AS A NATIONAL PTA SCHOOL OF EXCELLENCE

COMMITTEE: INNOVATION, GOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS, AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

LINK TO STRATEGIC BLUEPRINT: SAFE, HEALTHY AND SUPPORTIVE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

} Revised

The National PTA School of Excellence program, launched in 2013, helps to strengthen family-school partnerships across the country and make measurable progress in the areas of education, health and safety, and arts and cultural exploration.

Through the program, a PTA partners with its school at the beginning of the school year to examine how families feel the school measures up to the research-based indicators of the National Standards for Family-School Partnerships. After evaluating their current family engagement strategies, the PTA and school then work together throughout the year to address barriers and open up new ways for families to support student success. The National PTA School of Excellence designation is awarded when families feel the school has achieved a high level of engagement or when the PTA and school have made substantive, positive improvement in families' perceptions since the beginning of the year.

This summer, the National PTA recognized 124 schools from across the country as the 2015-2017 Schools of Excellence for their achievements in building strong family-school partnerships. Among this year's winners was Palmetto Elementary School.

More than 40 years of research shows that when families and schools work together, student achievement increases, schools improve and communities grow stronger. The School Board commends Palmetto Elementary PTA members Mariana Pesin, Andrea Gonzalez and Rossana Cardoso, and PTA President Janet Hodur for their dedicated time and energy in spearheading the school's success.
