LINK TO STRATEGIC PLAN: INFORMED, ENGAGED, & EMPOWERED STAKEHOLDERS

Mr. Jackson Nicolas has been an educator with Miami Dade County Public Schools for 20 years. He began his career at Lillie C. Evans under the careful supervision of the late Thelma Stinson who saw an innate skill in leadership that needed cultivation.

He devoted the next eight years of his profession, carefully honing his skills as a master educator. While teaching, he received various accolades such as the 2008-2009 Teacher of the Year for his school as well as compensation for his success in his student's achieving proficiency and learning gains.

He became the Assistant Principal of Phyllis Wheatley in 2012. He was promoted to Principal in 2016 and has served in this role at Earlington Heights Elementary figuratively and literally soaring to new heights.

Throughout these years, he has worked under various administrators who mentored him in the complex skill of leadership. He has taken bits and pieces from all whom he has encountered, to become the administrator he is today.

Mr. Nicolas now adds the distinguished honor of being Miami Dade County Public School's 2022 Principal of the Year.

Today we recognize and celebrate the effort and due diligence exhausted in his achievement. The purpose of the "Principal of the Year" award is to honor educators that have made an exceptional difference in the lives of their students and provided inspiration to their peers.

We take great pleasure in presenting this proclamation to Jackson Nicolas for demonstrating dramatic gains, outstanding leadership, and dedication.
