

Mr. Joseph S. Geller, School Board Member

SUBJECT: REQUEST FOR APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION NO. 26-043 OF THE SCHOOL BOARD OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, RECOGNIZING MR. ROBERT BRAZOFSKY

COMMITTEE: PERSONNEL, STUDENT, SCHOOL, & COMMUNITY SUPPORT

LINK TO STRATEGIC PLAN: INFORMED, ENGAGED, & EMPOWERED STAKEHOLDERS

Mr. Robert C. Brazofsky has dedicated 36 years to public education, including 15 years in the classroom and 21 years serving in curriculum, instruction, and professional development for Social Sciences at Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS). Most recently, Mr. Brazofsky served as District Director for the Department of Social Sciences, a position he held until his retirement from M-DCPS in July 2026.

During his tenure as District Director, Mr. Brazofsky created the department's largest student program, the Middle School and Senior High School Model United Nations Program. He also helped expand and strengthen longstanding enrichment opportunities, including the We the People Simulated Congressional Hearing, Project Citizen, and the Geography and History Bee competitions. In addition, he was instrumental in positioning the M-DCPS District Student Government Association as an exemplary model of student leadership, ensuring that student voice remained an essential part of the district's decision-making process.

Mr. Brazofsky's leadership contributed to consistently strong student performance in Social Sciences. During his tenure, the department achieved the district's highest proficiency results in Civics and U.S. History state-mandated end-of-course assessments. His commitment to educational excellence was also reflected in his efforts to ensure that curricular and legislative mandates were implemented while creating meaningful learning experiences for students, particularly in the areas of African American History, Holocaust Education, Victims of Communism, and the contributions of Hispanic Americans and women to U.S. history. He also worked closely with the University of Miami Holocaust Teacher Institute to provide educators with meaningful professional learning and ensure that Holocaust education remained at the forefront of the district's instructional priorities.

Following his retirement from M-DCPS, Mr. Brazofsky accepted the position of Director of Education and Programs at the Museum of Miami, formerly known as the HistoryMiami Museum, where he looks forward to continuing his commitment to education and serving students and the broader community in a new capacity. Mr. Robert C. Brazofsky leaves M-DCPS with a legacy of leadership and commitment to student success, and his dedication to public education has made a lasting impact on the district and the countless students, educators, and families he has served.
